Our mission: Preventing incidents and injuries across the energy industry

Introduction

Founded in 1997, Step Change in Safety is a member-led organisation which works to achieve our mission through active leadership, member collaboration and workforce engagement.

The safety and wellbeing of the workforce always comes first; it is the bedrock of our organisation and what shapes our goals.

Overview

Welcome to Step Change in Safety. We are a member-led, not-for-profit organisation bringing together:

- > industry leaders
- > energy providers
- > supply chain companies
- > workforce representatives
- > trade unions and associations
- > public bodies
- > regulators

We work with our member organisations to drive our mission, and we ask that you:

- > Promote the strategies and principles of Step Change in Safety
- > Demonstrate visible safety leadership
- > Ensure effective workforce involvement
- > Support site managers and safety representatives
- > Encourage collaboration by sharing best practice and learning across industry
- > Work towards consistency and continuous improvement in industry standards

Member employees have FREE access to all Step Change in Safety resources and toolkits, as well as attendance at our events.
